Pfeifer & Langen

SHORT DESCRIPTION

Reinforced concrete clarifying tank with a diameter of 24 m – pumping station based on a three-chamber system.

THE PROJECT

- Reinforced concrete clarifying tank with a diameter of 24 m
- Pumping station based on a three-chamber system
- Stringent requirements with regard to concrete quality and crack width restriction
- Including necessary infrastructure measures such as an office building, pipeline construction, outdoor facilities and road construction
- Construction period: 5 months

FACTS

Location	Germany , Germany
Status	completed
Construction volume (value of our services)	500,000 EUR
Start of construction	May 1995

SERVICES

Tesch