Top marks again for Implenia in Sustainalytics' sustainability ratings

Industry leader in environment, social and governance | Position reconfirmed with 86 points (2021: 85 points)

Glattpark (Opfikon), 29 August 2023 – Morningstar Sustainalytics, a leading independent ESG and corporate governance analysis firm, has given Implenia another outstanding rating for 2022. With 86 points, Implenia has consolidated its position as a leader on environmental, social and governance (ESG) in the “Construction & Engineering” sector. The focus here is on the management of ESG issues as well as ongoing ESG initiatives.

Implenia also continues to be an “Industry Top Rated” company in the Sustainalytics “ESG Risk Rating”. In addition to the management of ESG issues, this also incorporates industry specific ESG risks.

“As one of our five corporate values and part of our mission, sustainability is firmly anchored in Implenia’s culture; the Sustainalytics rating confirms this once again,” says Anita Eckardt, Chair of the Implenia Sustainability Committee. “The energy transition is a major driver of demand in the construction and real estate sector. We help our clients plan and build properties and infrastructure sustainably, and are constantly developing new ways to do this.”
