

PRESS RELEASE

Letzigrund work payment case: Implenia to appeal to the Zurich High Court

Dietlikon, 9 November 2015 – Implenia is to appeal against the verdict of the Zurich District Court in the case relating to outstanding payments for the construction of the Letzigrund Stadium. After assessment of the decision by the court of first instance, Implenia is reducing its claim by some CHF 3 million to around CHF 20 million. Implenia remains convinced that the City of Zurich must pay for the project modifications it requested and that were carried out.

Media contact at Implenia:

Philipp Bircher

Head of Communications Group

Phone: +41 58 474 74 77

communication@implenia.com

Implenia, Switzerland's leading construction and construction services company, also has a strong position in the German, Austrian and Scandinavian infrastructure markets. Established in 2006, Implenia can look back on around 150 years of construction tradition. It brings the expertise of its highly skilled sectoral and regional units under the roof of a company active throughout Europe. With its integrated business model and specialists operating in all areas of construction, the Group can manage a building project through its entire lifecycle and deliver work that is economical, integrated and customer-centric. The focus is on striking a sustainable balance between financial success and social and environmental responsibility.

Implenia has its headquarters in Dietlikon near Zurich and employs more than 8100 people around Europe. In 2014 it posted pro-forma turnover (including the former Bilfinger Construction GmbH) of around CHF 3.6 billion. The company is listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange (IMPN, CH0023868554). More information can be found at www.implenia.com.