

PRESS RELEASE

Payment for work on Hardau Car Park: Supreme Court backs Implenia's claim

Dietlikon, 3 December 2015 – In the case about outstanding payments for construction of the Hardau car park, Zurich's High Court ruled in favour of Implenia in March 2015 and ordered the City of Zurich to pay around CHF 250,000. Switzerland's Federal Supreme Court has now made a final decision that the City of Zurich must pay for the changes it made to its order for the the Hardau car park, as already acknowledged by the lower courts. However the case is being passed back to Zurich's High Court to clarify the formal question of whether it is permissible to offset the payments from the Hardau car park – now confirmed by the Supreme Court – against the claims asserted by the city for the Letzigrund Stadium.

Implenia press contact:

Philipp Bircher

Head of Communications Group

Tel.: +41 58 474 74 77

communication@implenia.com

Implenia, Switzerland's leading construction and construction services company, also has a strong position in the German, Austrian and Scandinavian infrastructure markets. Established in 2006, Implenia can look back on around 150 years of construction tradition. It brings the expertise of its highly skilled sectoral and regional units together under the roof a company active throughout Europe. With its integrated business model and specialists operating in all areas of construction, the Group can manage a building project through its entire lifecycle and deliver work that is economical, integrated and customer-centric. The focus is on striking a sustainable balance between financial success and social and environmental responsibility.

Implenia has its headquarters in Dietlikon near Zurich and employs approximately 8100 people around Europe. In 2014 it posted pro forma turnover (including the former Bilfinger Construction GmbH) of around CHF 3.6 billion. The company is listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange (IMPN, CH0023868554). More information can be found at www.implenia.com.