

PRESS RELEASE

Hans-Ulrich Meister proposed for election as new Member and Chairman of Implenia's Board of Directors – Outstanding knowledge of the Swiss economy and a wide network of contacts at home and abroad

Dietlikon, 8 February 2016 – Implenia Ltd.'s Board of Directors is proposing to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of 22 March 2016 that it elect Hans-Ulrich Meister as a new Member and Chairman of the Board of Directors. Hans Ulrich Meister has an outstanding knowledge of the Swiss economy and an excellent network of contacts in Switzerland and abroad. Thanks to his many years working at the top of the two major Swiss banks UBS and Credit Suisse, he has extensive financial expertise. He was CEO of Credit Suisse Switzerland and Head of the globally active Private Banking & Wealth Management Division. In these roles he was also a Member of the Executive Board of Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG. Implenia's Board of Directors is delighted to have found a candidate as experienced and dynamic as Hans-Ulrich Meister. His leadership skills will contribute greatly to the positive development of Implenia in Switzerland and its European home markets.
