

PRESS RELEASE

Transaction complete: Bilfinger Hochbau's activities now part of Implenia

Dietlikon, 3 March 2017 – Following completion of the purchase transaction, the activities acquired from Bilfinger Hochbau have today become part of the Implenia Group. The acquisition, announced at the end of December 2016, has been approved by all the relevant competition authorities. Bilfinger Hochbau generated production output of around EUR 450 million in 2016 and has approximately 1,000 employees. An internal, multidisciplinary team is working to integrate the new units into existing processes and structures as quickly as possible. The acquisition marks another step forward in Implenia's internationalisation, and gives the Group critical mass in Europe's largest construction market.

Implenia is Switzerland's leading construction and construction services company. It also has strong positions in the German, Austrian and Scandinavian infrastructure markets. Established in 2006, Implenia can look back on around 150 years of construction tradition. It brings the expertise of its highly skilled sectoral and regional units together under the roof of a company active throughout Europe. With its integrated business model and specialists operating in all areas of construction, the Group can manage a building project through its entire lifecycle and deliver work that is economical, integrated and customer-centric. The focus is on striking a sustainable balance between financial success and social and environmental responsibility.

Implenia, with its headquarters in Dietlikon near Zurich, currently employs more than 8,200 people around Europe and posted revenue of around CHF 3.3 billion in 2016. The company is listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange (IMPN, CH0023868554). More information can be found at www.implenia.com.
