Authorities contact Implenia Baugesellschaft GmbH in Vienna

Dietlikon, 11 May 2017 – As part of an investigation by Austria's public prosecutor into around 20 civil engineering firms, officials contacted Implenia Baugesellschaft GmbH in Vienna on Tuesday. They are looking into two small projects dating back to the time of Bilfinger Baugesellschaft GmbH, which was integrated into Implenia Group in 2015. The focus is on two people who were involved in these projects, but who have left Implenia a long time ago. Implenia is cooperating with the authorities and has assured them of its full support for their ongoing enquiries.
