

PRESS RELEASE

Implenia Norge with a new CEO

Dietlikon, 25 June 2018 – On 1 July 2018, Audun Aaland is taking over as CEO of Implenia Norge, the Norwegian subsidiary of the Swiss-based construction company Implenia. His predecessor, Tone H. Bachke has decided to turn to a new challenge outside the construction industry and will leave Implenia in summer 2018. Audun Aaland can look back on many years of technical project expertise, is an outstanding expert in construction, and has in-depth knowledge of the Norwegian market. Prior to his time at Implenia, he was Managing Director of Bilfinger Construction in Norway. The Group Executive Board and the Board of Directors would like to thank Tone H. Bachke for all her hard work and wish Audun Aaland great success in his new role.

Implenia is Switzerland's leading construction and construction services company. It also has strong positions in the German, Austrian and Scandinavian infrastructure markets. Established in 2006, Implenia can look back on around 150 years of construction tradition. It brings the expertise of its highly skilled construction units together under the roof of a company active throughout Europe. With its integrated business model and specialists operating in all areas of construction, the Group can manage a building project through its entire lifecycle and deliver work that is economical, integrated and customer-centric. The focus is on striking a sustainable balance between financial success and social and environmental responsibility.

Implenia, with its headquarters in Dietlikon near Zurich, employs around 10,000 people throughout Europe and posted revenue of around CHF 3.9 billion in 2017. The company is listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange (IMPN, CH0023868554). More information can be found at www.implenia.com.
