II. SHARE CAPITAL

Article 3

Share capital

The share capital of the corporation is CHF 18'841'440.00 divided into 18'472'000 registered shares with a nominal value of CHF 1.02 each. The share capital is fully paid up.

Article 3a

Conditional capital

- ¹ The share capital will be increased by a maximum amount of CHF 9'420'720.00 through the issuance of up to 9'236'000 fully paid up registered shares with a nominal value of CHF 1.02 each through the exercise of conversion and/or option rights granted in connection to bond issues and/or similar financial instruments of the corporation or affiliated corporations. The holders of the conversion and/or option rights are entitled to subscribe the new shares. The preemptive right of the existing shareholders is excluded. The board of directors shall determine the terms of the conversion and/or option rights.
- ² The board of directors may limit or exclude the shareholders' bond subscription rights in case of bond issues or issues of similar financial instruments to which conversion and/or option rights are connected if the instruments are issued to finance or refinance the acquisition of enterprises, parts thereof, participations or new investment projects and/or in connection with a placement on national or international capital markets. If bond subscription rights are not warranted directly or indirectly by resolution of the board of directors (1) the bonds or similar financial instruments are to be placed at market conditions, (2) the issue of the new registered shares shall be made at market conditions in adequate consideration of the market price of the registered shares and/or comparable instruments with a market price and (3) conversion and/or option rights shall be exercisable not exceeding ten years as of the date of the issue.

- ³ The acquisition of shares through the exercise of conversion and/or option rights as well as each subsequent transfer of the registered shares shall be subject to the transfer restrictions of article 7 paragraph 4 of the articles of association.

Article 4

Shares

- ¹ The general meeting of shareholders may at any time resolve to convert registered shares into bearer shares and bearer shares into registered shares.
- ² Subject to paragraph 3, the corporation's registered and bearer shares are regarded as uncertificated stock (as defined by the Swiss Code of Obligations) and managed as intermediated securities (as defined by the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act).
- ³ Once entered in the share register, shareholders can request at any time that the company issue written confirmation of their registered shares; they do not, however, have the right to request that certificates be printed and delivered. The corporation can, though, print and deliver certificates (single or global certificates) for registered shares at any time. It can withdraw registered shares managed as intermediated securities from the relevant safekeeping system. The corporation can cancel without replacement any issued certificates that are delivered to it.

Article 6

[cancelled]

Article 7

- ¹ The corporation shall maintain a share register showing the name, address and, in the case of individuals, nationality (or registered office for legal entities) of the owners, usufructuaries and nominees of registered shares. Any changes of name or address must be notified to the corporation.
- ² The exercise of rights may only be asserted in relation to the corporation by shareholders, usufructuaries or nominees entered in the share register.
- ³ The registration of an acquirer in the share register requires the approval of the board of directors.
- ⁴ Acquirers of registered shares are registered in the share register with the right to vote upon request if:
 - a) they can prove that they acquired and hold these registered shares in their own name and for their own account. Persons who do not provide such evidence shall only be registered as nominees with the right to vote in the share register if they undertake in writing to disclose the names, addresses and the number of shares of the persons for whose account they hold shares, or if they disclose this information immediately on first request. The remaining provisions of the articles of association, in particular Articles 4, 11 and 13, apply by analogy to nominees. The board of directors is empowered to enter into agreements with nominees regarding their notification duties;
 - b) the recognition of an acquirer as a shareholder does not hinder or risk hindering the corporation and/or its subsidiaries, according to the information available to the corporation, from providing the legally required evidence about the composition of its shareholder body and/or beneficial owners. In connection with the project development and real estate business run through the corporation's subsidiaries, the corporation is specifically entitled to refuse to register persons abroad (pursuant to Federal Law of 16 December 1983 on the Acquisition of Real Estate by Persons Abroad, BewG), if such registration could raise any doubt about the Swiss control of the corporation and/or its subsidiaries.

- ⁵ Shareholders that are affiliated or that act in concert are treated as a single shareholder or acquirer with regard to the application of this article 7.
- ⁶ After hearing the registered shareholder or nominee, the corporation may cancel the registration in the share register, with retroactive effect as of the date of registration if the registration was based on false information, or if the information required under Article 7 paragraph 4a is not disclosed. The shareholder or nominee shall be informed immediately of the cancellation of the registration.
- ⁷ The board of directors is authorised to issue rules about the management of the share register and about specific registration conditions and restrictions, particularly rules about proving that shares are acquired and held in one's own name and for one's own account, percentage thresholds for registration of persons abroad as a whole and individually, affiliated shareholders or shareholders acting in concert, and rules about the allocation of free places for foreigners.
